Brief Summary of Diary Contents

January-March: Peter O'Reilly, unable to walk, continues to convalesce at home from injuries sustained in an April 1885 carriage accident.

March: Pile driver employed to place piles for boathouse and breakwater; Jones the dentist fills three of Peter's teeth at home

April: Peter returns to work at Indian Agency Office in downtown Victoria.

May: Peter tries out a new horse "Mac" and later buys him for $215; discusses enlargement of the kitchen; lays out ten Indian reserves between Lytton and Ashcroft.

June: "The town of Vancouver burnt down"; Peter travels up the west coast of Vancouver Island to establish six Hesquiat reserves.

July: The O'Reilly family attends a cricket match and band concert in Beacon Hill Park, witnesses a naval sham fight in Esquimalt, and attends or participates in tennis matches.

July-August: Sir John A. and Lady Macdonald visit Victoria and the O'Reilly family.

September-October: Peter travels to the eastern side of Vancouver Island to Fort Rupert, Alert Bay, and islands further to the north-east to establish or review more than 110 reserves.

December: Arrangements made for 13-year-old Arthur John (Jack) O'Reilly to attend Uppingham School in England; death of William Fraser Tolmie (1812-1886) surgeon and fur trader.
